You may use the following references: Constitutional Law (2024 Edition) by Atty. Carlo Cruz, Outline Reviewer in Political Law (2016 Edition) by the late Justice Antonio Eduardo Nachura, The 1987 Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines: A Commentary (2009 Edition) by the late Fr. Joaquin G. Bernas, S.J., or Political Law Reviewer (2022 Edition) by Atty. Ed Vincent Albano. However, I am not requiring the class to purchase any of these books as they are quite expensive. You may look for free PDF copies which may be available online, borrow copies of the books from the USC Library, or consider borrowing or purchasing older, more affordable editions.

For the full text of the Supreme Court cases, you may visit lawphil.net or lawyerly.ph. Use the case number (i.e. G.R. No.) for precise searches and make sure to verify that the case title, case number, and date of promulgation of the cases you are reading match the details above.
